

Winged Burning Bush

Euonymus alatus

Careful! Many other plants look like this one. Look for the large "wings" on the stem.

Reddish purple fruit in summer

Wings on the green stem are brown

Small pale green flowers in spring

Pointed leaves have jagged edges. They turn red in fall.

The winged burning bush forms dense thickets. This leaves less room for other plants.